

NINETY-EIGHTH YEAR.

SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 2, 1905.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

SUMMARY OF
The St. Louis Republic
Sunday, July 2, 1905.

THE WEATHER.

FORECAST.	A.M.
St. Louis and vicinity.	6-71
Clear to-day; little change in temperature; variable winds.	6-70
Clear to-day; little change in temperature; variable winds.	6-70
Clear to-day; little change in temperature; variable winds.	6-70
Clear to-day; little change in temperature; variable winds.	6-70
Clear to-day; little change in temperature; variable winds.	6-70
Clear to-day; little change in temperature; variable winds.	6-70
Clear to-day; little change in temperature; variable winds.	6-70
Clear to-day; little change in temperature; variable winds.	6-70
Clear to-day; little change in temperature; variable winds.	6-70

Washington, July 1.—Forecast: Kansas—Showers and cooler to-day; fair to-morrow.

Indiana and Illinois—Fair to-day; to-morrow showers and thunder storms; light rain with backing south.

Iowa—Occasional showers and thunder storms to-day and to-morrow.

Nebraska—Showers and thunder storms to-day and to-morrow.

Arkansas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory—Showers to-day and to-morrow.

Western Texas—Fair to-day; showers and cooler in north portion to-day and to-morrow.

Eastern Texas—Showers to-day and to-morrow, except fair in northwest portion; fresh southeast winds, shifting to south.

FEATURES OF TO-DAY'S NEWS.

1. Betting Continues at Delmar.
2. Philadelphia Boat Quits.
3. May Funeral Arrangements.
4. Transit Mergers Case Dismissed.
5. How They Would Spend Vacations.
6. New York Port Exports.
7. Given Up Wealth for Frisbees.
8. Editorials and Comment.
9. St. Louis Artists Honored.
10. Republic Cable News.
11. Society News.
12. Secret Society Happenings.

1. Tolls of Battle of Wunden.
2. Tale of Russian Regiment's Surrender.
3. Gleason Best American Bateman.
4. Hart and Root Fight To-Morrow.
5. Norway-Sweden War Likely.
6. St. Louis Bank Wrecking Affairs.
7. Santa Fe Bank.
8. Congressmen Hunt Wives.
9. Sporting and Athletics.
10. Society News of Year-By Cities.
11. Summer Resort Happenings.

1. Seventeen Packers Indicted.
2. Bookman Mystery Involved.
3. Russian Mafias Situation.
4. Real Estate News and Sales.
5. News of the Markets.

WASHINGTON.

The funeral of Secretary of State John Hay probably will take place in Cleveland Wednesday; the flag at the National capital are at half mast in honor of the statesman.

President Roosevelt feels the death of Secretary Hay as a personal bereavement.

ALL THE London newspapers editorially praise Secretary Hay for his statesmanship, saying his loss will be felt in the diplomatic world.

FOREIGN.

Francis McCullagh, Republic and New York Herald correspondent, left the complete story of the battle of Mukden.

Confusion in the Russian army and the tendency of soldiers to drink when opportunity is offered, constitutes one of the greatest drawbacks to Muscovite successes.

Russia's army seems to be crushed and routed, position after position being taken on the fatal days of March 1 and succeeding weeks.

Francis McCullagh tells of his capture by the troops under General Kaulbars.

LOCAL AND SUBURBAN.

The largest crowd of the week attended the races at Delmar, and the wagering was brisk.

The case of Cella, Adler & Tilles to prevent the Transit merger is thrown out of court.

Captain Harry Brodski, veteran river commander, will attend the funeral of Secretary Hay.

The removal of 500 patients to the new City Hospital is a problem which will confront directors of the institution in the next few days.

GENERAL DOMESTIC.

Governor Deussen of Illinois will probably announce appointments after returning from his vacation.

Plans are on foot to erect a monument in bronze, modeled after the late Joseph Jefferson.

John H. Finley, bartender, bitten by negro forced out of saloon, fears blood poisoning.

Mrs. Mary Stella dies twice at Delmar, having bought jewelry to defend herself.

The Reverend Father Louis J. Pura, member of prominent French family of St. Louis gave up social position and vision to become priest.

Israel Durban, Republican boss of Philadelphia, is forced out of State Insurance commissionership by Mayor Weaver.

SPORTS NEWS.

Prominent athletes to compete in the west of the Scottish Clans.

Hart and Root will fight at Delmar, N.Y. to-morrow.

The National Baseball Commission may get against the "Outlaw" League.

Gleason has the highest percentage as club baseman in the American League.

Competition for the Harlem Cup race will open rowing season on the river this afternoon.

NEW PANAMA CANAL HEAD
TO RECEIVE $30,000 A YEAR

JOHN F. STEVENS, Chief Engineer of the Panama Canal. His salary will be $30,000 a year.

AFTER SANTA FE
FOR CONTEMPT

Assistant Attorney General Purdy Asks Federal Attachment for Railroad Officials.

CHARGED WITH REBATING.

Company Said to Have Frequently Violated Injunction Forbidding Rate Discriminations.

Kansas City July 1.—Contempt proceedings against the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company, charging that company with being guilty of the violation of an injunction issued at Kansas City by Judge John F. Phillips on March 24, 1902, restraining the road from giving rebates, were filed in the United States District Court here today at the instigation of Milton D. Purdy of Washington, D. C., Assistant Attorney General, who came here recently at the direction of the Attorney General to file the suit upon behalf of the Government.

Although Judge Phillips' restraining order, issued three years ago, was directed against seven other railroad companies besides the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, the suit filed today is solely against the latter road. The other railroads enjoined by Judge Phillips were the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Chicago and Alton, Missouri Pacific, Wabash, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, and the Chicago Great Western.

A similar order was issued by Judge Grosscup in Chicago on March 25, 1902, against six other roads.

The suit filed today at the instigation of the Federal Government relates that the Santa Fe Railroad, up to the time the injunction was granted, had been engaged in the practice of granting unlawful rebates and preferential rates and facilities to certain favored shippers whose names were to the complainants unknown, on traffic in packing-house products, dressed meats, grain and the products of grain which were not granted to the public generally, and that the Santa Fe Railroad also had been granting unlawful rebates and preferential rates and facilities to certain other favored shippers on many other of the principal commodities which constituted and comprised the ordinary necessities of life.

CONTEMPT CHARGED.

The information, after noting the issuance of the restraining order on March 24, 1902, says that between March 25, 1902, and November 8, 1904, the Santa Fe Railroad Company and its officers and agents unlawfully, wrongfully and knowingly violated and disregarded the said restraining order.

The information states specifically that the Santa Fe favored the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, in giving rates on coal, saying it carried the coal of said company at a less rate than the rates named for sale to the public generally, and that the Santa Fe Railroad also had been granting unlawful rebates and preferential rates and facilities to said Colorado Fuel and Iron Company.

The information asserts that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Company is in contempt of the said writ and restraining order, and asks the Federal Court to cite the company's officials to appear in court and make answer for such acts.

Judge Phillips did not indicate today what action he might take in the matter.

CHICAGO TEAMSTERS TIRE.

Berate Shea and Men Who Have Managed Their Strike.

Chicago, July 1.—Threatening to return to work unless they were given more money, 1,000 strikers gathered at the office

AFTER SANTA FE
FOR CONTEMPT

Assistant Attorney General Purdy Asks Federal Attachment for Railroad Officials.

CHARGED WITH REBATING.

Company Said to Have Frequently Violated Injunction Forbidding Rate Discriminations.

Kansas City July 1.—Contempt proceedings against the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company, charging that company with being guilty of the violation of an injunction issued at Kansas City by Judge John F. Phillips on March 24, 1902, restraining the road from giving rebates, were filed in the United States District Court here today at the instigation of Milton D. Purdy of Washington, D. C., Assistant Attorney General, who came here recently at the direction of the Attorney General to file the suit upon behalf of the Government.

Although Judge Phillips' restraining order, issued three years ago, was directed against seven other railroad companies besides the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, the suit filed today is solely against the latter road. The other railroads enjoined by Judge Phillips were the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Chicago and Alton, Missouri Pacific, Wabash, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, and the Chicago Great Western.

A similar order was issued by Judge Grosscup in Chicago on March 25, 1902, against six other roads.

The suit filed today at the instigation of the Federal Government relates that the Santa Fe Railroad, up to the time the injunction was granted, had been engaged in the practice of granting unlawful rebates and preferential rates and facilities to certain favored shippers whose names were to the complainants unknown, on traffic in packing-house products, dressed meats, grain and the products of grain which were not granted to the public generally, and that the Santa Fe Railroad also had been granting unlawful rebates and preferential rates and facilities to certain other favored shippers on many other of the principal commodities which constituted and comprised the ordinary necessities of life.

CONTEMPT CHARGED.

The information, after noting the issuance of the restraining order on March 24, 1902, says that between March 25, 1902, and November 8, 1904, the Santa Fe Railroad Company and its officers and agents unlawfully, wrongfully and knowingly violated and disregarded the said restraining order.

The information states specifically that the Santa Fe favored the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, in giving rates on coal, saying it carried the coal of said company at a less rate than the rates named for sale to the public generally, and that the Santa Fe Railroad also had been granting unlawful rebates and preferential rates and facilities to said Colorado Fuel and Iron Company.

The information asserts that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Company is in contempt of the said writ and restraining order, and asks the Federal Court to cite the company's officials to appear in court and make answer for such acts.

Judge Phillips did not indicate today what action he might take in the matter.

CHICAGO TEAMSTERS TIRE.

Berate Shea and Men Who Have Managed Their Strike.

Chicago, July 1.—Threatening to return to work unless they were given more money, 1,000 strikers gathered at the office

SALMON CREDITORS
WILL MEET MONDAY

To Organize to Bring About Involuntary Bankruptcy.

BANK'S ASSETS, $800,000.

Receiver Egger in Charge of Funds and Better Feeling Prevails Among Clinton Citizens.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

Clinton, Mo., July 1.—A second meeting of the creditors of the Salmon Bank will be held Monday afternoon to form an organization in anticipation of forcing the bankers into involuntary bankruptcy.

The unprotected creditors are expected to attend, and the meeting may possibly assume some of the exciting features of the mass meeting of last Monday.

The committee which called that assembly will be in charge of the meeting Monday. It is composed of Messrs. Starbuck, White, Weller and Boorman. They met to-day at the store of E. C. Kent and determined to unify sentiment and arrange to press the proceeding in the Federal Courts.

Several hundred depositors are expected to attend Monday's convocation, which will probably be held in the Court house.

EGGER TAKES OVER ASSETS.

Bank Examiner Robert M. Cook, representing Secretary of State Swager, this morning turned over to Receiver John B. Egger all of the property and visible assets of the Salmon and Salmon Bank.

The receiver for the assets, which Mr. Cook carried back to Jefferson City to-day, reaches a total of between $600,000 and $800,000.

The property turned over to Receiver Egger includes all of the real estate owned by Salmon & Salmon and by George Y. Salmon and Harvey W. Salmon, as individuals, separate deeds for each tract of land in Henry County were given by the Salmon brothers to Receiver Egger and have been recorded.

The property transferred by Examiner Cook also comprised all the notes, good and bad, the alleged forged notes and the handsome bank building which, it is understood, is to be used by the new Farmers' National Bank.

Among the items in the receipts were cash to the amount of $570.17, which was the actual cash in the vault at the time of the failure. Cash items amounted to $4,822.22, which were items of the regular course of affairs. There were deposits of $1,114.15, which were received in the form of cash and checks after the close of business on the day of the failure.

This sum is kept in a separate fund apart from the other assets, and awaits an order of the court. It is supposed that these sums will be returned to the depositors as soon as the Circuit Court has directed and they have no part in the assets of the bank.

The most striking item is that of $60,000. This consists of the slips for amounts ranging from $1 to $500, which were found in a drawer and which have been carried as cash since January 1, 1905, the date when they were not examined and will not be until Thomas M. Casey is physically able to talk of them.

SLIPS A MYSTERY.

The total paid on account of the Tebo Land and Cattle Company, the former property of George M. Casey, has been $7,765.41. Henry Bank expenses for the three months aggregate $1,115.55. Insurance on various properties approximates $1,000. The personal account of the two Salmons and of Thomas M. Casey contained in the "debit slips" do not reach great amounts. They are all under $100 and represent cash on hand and have been carried as cash since January 1, 1905, the date when they were not examined and will not be until Thomas M. Casey is physically able to talk of them.

HEAT ONCE VOLUNTEERED TO PLAY THE PART OF BEST MAN AND ESCORTED THE COUPLE TO THE OFFICE OF THE MARRIAGE LICENSE CLERK, WHERE E. C. PAUL ISSUED THE LICENSE. THEY THEN VISITED THE OFFICE OF JUSTICE NATHAN, WHERE THEY WERE MARRIED.

Whether Creve Coeur Lake is a public or private body of water is a point raised yesterday in the Clayton Circuit Court in the injunction proceedings instituted by the Hillsdale Amusement Company against William Wipke.

Wipke is a saloonkeeper and has a drams shop at Creve Coeur Lake, opposite the premises of the plaintiff. To get customers, Wipke conceived the idea of running a free launch across the lake, and started the launch on the shore leading to the Hillsdale Amusement Company for the landing of his passengers. The injunction was asked for a temporary order was issued yesterday by Judge McMillen.

RECEIVER EGGER TO BE MADE TO GET THE BANK'S AFFAIRS INTO THE HANDS OF THE UNITED STATES COURT AT KANSAS CITY NEXT THURSDAY.

Receiver Egger has filed bond with the Circuit Court for $600,000. This is given by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, and is to take the place of the personal bond furnished by the order of receivership made by the court.

Farmers from all parts of the county were in Clinton to-day, a typical Saturday afternoon crowd. While the topic of conversation was the Salmon failure, there was no excitement and very little bitter talk. The excellent condition of crops of all kinds in this territory, which have been helped amazingly by the recent rains, has caused a current of good feeling. The report is that for two decades there has never been such an excellent crop condition.

CASEY IN SERIOUS STATE.

Thomas M. Casey is very weak to-day, according to reports from his room, which is guarded by Deputy Sheriff. He has been unable to talk with Receiver Egger, and it is freely predicted that he will never leave his bed. His father, George M. Casey, died after a six months' nervous breakdown, and it is believed by many that the son will go the same way.

RECEIVER EGGER TO BE MADE TO GET THE BANK'S AFFAIRS INTO THE HANDS OF THE UNITED STATES COURT AT KANSAS CITY NEXT THURSDAY.

Receiver Egger has filed bond with the Circuit Court for $600,000. This is given by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, and is to take the place of the personal bond furnished by the order of receivership made by the court.

Farmers from all parts of the county were in Clinton to-day, a typical Saturday afternoon crowd. While the topic of conversation was the Salmon failure, there was no excitement and very little bitter talk. The excellent condition of crops of all kinds in this territory, which have been helped amazingly by the recent rains, has caused a current of good feeling. The report is that for two decades there has never been such an excellent crop condition.

RECEIVER EGGER TO BE MADE TO GET THE BANK'S AFFAIRS INTO THE HANDS OF THE UNITED STATES COURT AT KANSAS CITY NEXT THURSDAY.

Receiver Egger has filed bond with the Circuit Court for $600,000. This is given by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, and is to take the place of the personal bond furnished by the order of receivership made by the court.

Farmers from all parts of the county were in Clinton to-day, a typical Saturday afternoon crowd. While the topic of conversation was the Salmon failure, there was no excitement and very little bitter talk. The excellent condition of crops of all kinds in this territory, which have been helped amazingly by the recent rains, has caused a current of good feeling. The report is that for two decades there has never been such an excellent crop condition.

RECEIVER EGGER TO BE MADE TO GET THE BANK'S AFFAIRS INTO THE HANDS OF THE UNITED STATES COURT AT KANSAS CITY NEXT THURSDAY.

Receiver Egger has filed bond with the Circuit Court for $600,000. This is given by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, and is to take the place of the personal bond furnished by the order of receivership made by the court.

Farmers from all parts of the county were in Clinton to-day, a typical Saturday afternoon crowd. While the topic of conversation was the Salmon failure, there was no excitement and very little bitter talk. The excellent condition of crops of all kinds in this territory, which have been helped amazingly by the recent rains, has caused a current of good feeling. The report is that for two decades there has never been such an excellent crop condition.

RECEIVER EGGER TO BE MADE TO GET THE BANK'S AFFAIRS INTO THE HANDS OF THE UNITED STATES COURT AT KANSAS CITY NEXT THURSDAY.

SWEDISH SQUADRON PASSES
DENMARK GOING NORTHWARD

Warships Are Said to Be Undergoing Maneuvers—Sixteen Vessels in the Fleet—Possibility of a Clash With Norway Sets Students of Things Warlike to Figuring on Campaigns—Winter Campaign in Scandinavia Which Would Astonish the World Would Mark the Opening of Hostilities.

ARMY OF SWEDEN IS CONCEDED TO BE THE STRONGER.

Copenhagen, Denmark, July 1.—A Swedish squadron of sixteen warships now undergoing maneuvers passed here this morning, steering northward.

FIGHTING STRENGTH OF TWO COUNTRIES CONTRASTED

London, July 1.—In these days when so much is spoken of the disruption of the union between Sweden and Norway it may be interesting to look into the military establishments of the two possible combatants. These two little countries of the north may break the peace with which they have been blessed for more than ninety years—a longer period of peace than either of them ever before experienced in their history, so full of war between themselves.

The situation is certainly most complicated. Here we have two countries, perfectly independent of each other except as far as the management of their relations with foreign powers is concerned, which latter is under the direction of the Swedish Minister of Foreign Affairs.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

They have their own separate armies and navies, with nothing in common except that the King of Sweden and Norway is Commander in Chief of both armies, and that the Princes of the Royal family are officers in different regiments and in the navies of both countries.

SAFE IS RIFLED;
EMPLOYEE MISSING

Spencer Claxton, Stenographer at pany, Disappears.

PAY ROLL MONEY GONE.

Auditor C. R. Holbach Also Loses $400 in Currency and Some Insurance Papers—Police Investigating.

Following the abrupt disappearance yesterday of Spencer Claxton, a stenographer in the office of R. T. Boyd, superintendent of the St. Louis Plate Glass Company at Valley Park, it was discovered that $400 had been taken from the safe in Auditor C. R. Holbach's office, together with some belonging to that official, and some insurance papers.

Detectives are now looking for Claxton, hoping that he can assist them in clearing up the mystery. The last seen of him was about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when he alighted from a Missouri Pacific train at Tower Grove Station.

The money was taken at noon yesterday. Of that fact the officials are certain. The theft was not discovered for several hours. There was no inkling that anything was wrong until 2 o'clock, when Holbach went to the safe for the purpose of paying the employees, yesterday being the semi-monthly pay day.

Although the combination worked, the door could not be opened. Holbach reported the matter to Boyd, who sent bricklayers to the place. After forty minutes' work they succeeded in taking the door off its hinges. Then it was discovered that a block of wood had been whittled to fit in a cavity, which prevented the opening of the door.

The money was gone, as was also a package belonging to Holbach, containing $400 and his life-insurance papers.

Claxton is said to have been the only man in the office who knew the combination besides Holbach. He had access to the safe at all times, as he was generally the first at the office in the morning and it was necessary for him to open it to get out records and other matters with which he worked.

Claxton was seen yesterday entering the office of the company with a suit case. He went to his room, as usual, and started back to the company's office with several employees. He then remarked that he wanted to go to the old town (the original part of Valley Park) for a moment. He went direct to the railroad station and boarded a train.

Claxton is about 25 years old, single, of dark complexion, smooth, oval face, blue eyes, light hair, nearly 6 feet tall, weighs about 150 pounds, slightly stooped-shouldered, talks with a Southern accent, dropping the r's, was dressed in a grey suit, sack coat, light felt hat, plain black lace shoes, and wore a plain gold band ring on his left hand, and a watch on his left hand. He had been with the company about one year.

HE SAVED A "MAD" DOG.

Doctor Woodbury Leaps Into Arca-way and Quits Terrier.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, July 1.—While a crowd of fully 20 persons were watching the antics of a "mad" dog at Fortieth street and Fifth avenue in the forenoon, Doctor John McLaughlin, a well-known animal tamer, pushed his way through, captured the little animal and, still carrying him, drove away in triumph.

The main trouble with the dog was fright, and the idea of rabies had originated in the dog's mind. The dog had been watching his antics. The "mad" dog was watching his antics.

It was a small fox terrier and he had fallen in some unexplained manner into the area by the side of the big front steps of the residence of W. Van derbilt's residence, No. 43 Fifth avenue. Once in there was no way for him to get out unaided, as he could not jump his way through the door.

The house is boarded up for the summer and there was no one in the basement to hear his cries. The dog was barking and howling and frothing with rage. As time passed without relief the dog became more and more frantic. The dog was barking and howling and frothing with rage.

A crowd began to gather around the dog. The dog was barking and howling and frothing with rage. As time passed without relief the dog became more and more frantic. The dog was barking and howling and frothing with rage.

Doctor Woodbury was driving down Fifth avenue and stopped to inquire what had happened. When he learned that a "mad" dog was loose, he jumped out of his car and rushed toward the animal. He made a dash into the corner of the house and picked up the dog.

He carried the dog to his car and drove away. The dog was barking and howling and frothing with rage. As time passed without relief the dog became more and more frantic. The dog was barking and howling and frothing with rage.

WON BRIDE BY A LETTER.

Unique Wooing Results in Marriage After Brief Engagement.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Middleboro, Mass., July 1.—A pretty romance in the town of Henry William Forman, a young farmer in Pipestone, Minn., to this town to marry Miss Nellie B. Collier.

"How did you ever hear of Miss Collier?" was the question asked. The bridegroom, but a smile was the answer, and it remained for the bride to tell the story of their meeting.

"It was in an absent moment, when I was looking for something funny to do," Miss Collier said, "that I came across an advertisement in a newspaper. It was from a young man who was looking for a wife and husband for people."

"There seemed a chance to have some fun, so I sent a letter, and in exchange got some literature regarding their business. Fuller had a key to the box and declared he took the case because he was hungry. It is not believed that a warrant will be issued against him. He says he found the key near the box."

HUNGRY MAN STEALS BREAD.

Watchman Arrests Aged Man Who Despoiled Locker.

Private Watchman Kelly arrested yesterday morning arrested Frank Fuller, 67 years old, homeless and hungry, on a charge of stealing three pieces of coffee cake from a bread box in front of Mr. Feldman's store at No. 63 West street.

Fuller had a key to the box and declared he took the case because he was hungry. It is not believed that a warrant will be issued against him. He says he found the key near the box."

WATCHMAN ARRESTS AGED MAN WHO DESPOILED LOCKER.

Private Watchman Kelly arrested yesterday morning arrested Frank Fuller, 67 years old, homeless and hungry, on